Biography of Leonid Vasilievich MARKOV
Леонид Васильевич Марков

Leonid (Vasilievich) MARKOV was born on March 5, 1926 in Kharkov (Ukraine).

In the late 30s, Markov family moved to Poltava, where the future artist took private painting lessons. In 1942, his father died in Leningrad, and his mother died in 1943.

In 1945, they both moved to Moscow where their uncle, Leonid Vyacheslavovich Markov was living, This uncle held a high position in the National Health Care dpt. Young Markov categorically refused to receive any support from his uncle. The young artist (19 y.o) found a job in a shoe factory to feed himself and his sister. In the same year (1945) he started to learn at The Moscow Surikov Art Institute.
